

Sheshunoff Consulting + Solutions and Bennington Partners Awarded Best of 2013 in The Commercial Record Readers' Poll

The results of The Commercial Record sixth annual readers' poll are final. Readers cast their votes for the best providers of services and goods in the banking and real estate professions. The companies that won the loyalty and support of the financial and real estate community are among the best in the New England region.

The Commercial Record, a division of the Warren Group, conducted an online survey of their readers and promoted this project via ads in The Commercial Record publication, through their website, and emails to thousands of their readers and customers. Readers responded enthusiastically to the opportunity to voice their choice. Readers awarded Sheshunoff Consulting + Solutions and Bennington Partners with top votes in multiple categories in their 2013 readers' poll.

Sheshunoff Consulting + Solutions and Bennington Partners are pleased to announce that the firm's professional services continue to be recognized by the readers of the regional publication, The Commercial Record. This year the firms have received three honors:

- Bennington Partners- Bronze in Banking Audit/Accounting
- Bennington Partners- Silver in Banking Compliance
- Sheshunoff Consulting + Solutions- Silver in Banking Consulting

The 2013 honors reflect the third year in a row that Sheshunoff Consulting + Solutions and Bennington Partners have placed in the top three of the readers' poll.

The entire team at Sheshunoff Consulting + Solutions and Bennington Partners would like to thank our loyal clients for their ongoing business and support.
